Social history - fictional classroom case

The imaginary city of Luma opened its first community library in 1973.

The library reading room is named Cedar Hall.

This is synthetic test material for citation verification.

Business foundations - fictional Northwind case

In the fictional Northwind case, the team budget is 480 credits.

Exactly 120 credits are reserved for training.

The budget owner is Mira Vale.

This case does not specify an examination date.